The guests have access to the guest home dining room and kitchen. Every room is assigned a space in a refrigerator.

The rooms are available from 4.00 p.m. on the day of arrival. Check-out is usually to be done 10.00 a.m. at the latest.

Only those visiting the temple daily can make room reservations (with the exception of accompanying children).

Youth groups performing baptisms can stay with their leaders in the guest home.

The following order applies when making room reservations at the guest home:

1. Temple patrons coming for their own endowment, for children being sealed to their parents, marriage, or sealing after civil marriage. The reservation needs to be made, at the latest, 4 weeks prior to the Tuesday of the week of arrival.
2. Members visiting the temple during the assigned temple week for their stake, mission or district. The reservation needs to be made, at the latest, 4 weeks prior to the Tuesday of the week of arrival.
3. The remaining beds are distributed according to the reservation date.
